

Joint Custody Continued...

Child custody can be decided by a local court in a divorce or if a child, relative, close friend or state agency questions whether one (or both parents) is unfit, absent, dead, in prison, or dangerous to the child's well-being. In such cases, custody can be awarded to a grandparent, another relative, foster parent, orphanage, or other organization/institution.